

No double dipping shared sauce

K2K
association standard

- 1 Use hand sanitizer first.
In order to prevent spreading infection, we sanitize thoroughly.
- 2 Only dip Kushi-Katsu in shared sauce once.
We forbid dipping Katsu once you take a bite or put it on a plate.
- 3 Dip Kushi-Katsu and put it on your plate.
We believe welcoming atmosphere is created by caring staff and customers. We appreciate you sharing love for Kushi-Katsu.
- 4 Sprinkle seasoning on your plate.
Seasonings are not to be used on the tray Kushi-Katsu comes out on. That could risk seasoning being mixed into the shared sauce.
- 5 Do not make a mess of the shared sauce.
The one and only original shared sauce is only used to dip Kushi-Katsu once. You are not allowed to use cabbage to scoop out sauce on the plate but may use Kushi-Katsu to do so as long as it's a first dip.
- 6 Enjoy Kushi-Katsu while it's hot.
Enjoy Kushi-Katsu right when it's done with respect and appreciate to fresh ingredients and proud professionals.
- 7 Place used skewers in your own skewer basket.
Leaving skewer on your plate or tray is not the way to end your Kushi-Katsu experience. It is completed by placing skewers into the waste basket.
- 8 Please kindly share the K2K standard to those who don't know it.
We believe welcoming atmosphere is created by caring staff and customers. We appreciate you sharing love for Kushi-Katsu.

Take the K2K standard quiz after you enjoy Kushi-Katsu!

